

www.motoplast.fi

THE INTERNATIONAL INNOVATIVE-STATE-OF-ART REWARD FOR MOTOPLAST

Motoplast, a plasticmoulding-division of Motal Oy, took top honors in the annual Rotomolded Product Competition held November 2003, at the Kansas City, USA.

The competition, arranged by ARM International association, honors outstanding achievement in the advancement of the rotational molding process.

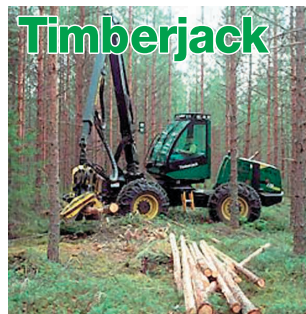

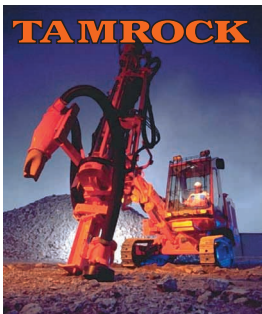

The product is an unique combination of a box for 200 amp battery with 12 ltr wind- screenwashertank and removable toolbox. This combination is side mounted to a tractor body.

Motoplast, founded 1978, is manufacturing plastic components for heavy duty vechiles in its own 4000 sqm facilities in Helsinki. These products includes oil- and fueltanks, airducts and -pipes, filterhousings, cabin roofs, noise reduction elements and other body components.

The company offers to its Customers the knowledge of the Rotational Molding by co-operation with Industrial Designers and with the R&D engineers, as well as supply the moulds and prototypes. Motoplast allso takes care of the needed typeapprovaltests, f.ex according the Directive 2000/8/EU for plastic fuel tanks.

Motoplast is manufacturing plastic components allso f.ex these high valued Vechile Manufacturers.

Motoplast is a member of:

Association of Rotational Molders International

Finnish Plastics Association

Association of Rotational Molding Central Europe

More info:

Motal-division

Motoplast, Valuraudantie 18, 00700 HELSINKI

tel 358-9-3754297, fax 358-9-3754266